Game Summary

Chris Boswell kicked his 4th field goal of the game for a walk-off win for Pittsburgh over Las Vegas 26-24. The Steelers struggled to take advantage of 5-1 edge in turnovers as they squandered several short fields. In the end the Steelers defense got the ball back one last time after a T.J. Watt sack backed the Raiders deep in their own territory. Ben Roethlisberger then methodically moved the Steelers into easy field goal range.
