

Actual:

BIRMINGHAM 41, CHICAGO 7

Replay:

BIRMINGHAM 33, CHICAGO 7

Stallions run past Blitz under Friday night lights. Cliff Stoudt used his arm and his legs to lead the Birmingham offense, throwing three short touchdown passes to Jerry Smith and setting up two of the scores with 30 yard scrambles. Danny Miller added four field goals for the Stallions to round out the scoring. Birmingham, playing without holdout Joe Cribbs, rushed for a season high 237 yards.

STATISTICAL LEADERS:

Rushing:	Stoudt 9 atts, 89 yards	Rushing:	Ferguson 5 atts, 41 yards
Passing:	Stoudt 21 of 30, 177 yards, 3 TDs	Passing:	Evans 12 of 27, 180 yards, 1 TD, 1 Int
Receiving:	Smith 13 recs, 100 yards, 3 TDs	Receiving:	Anderson 8 recs, 148 yards, 1 TD

Birmingham
10-3-0

33

	1	2	3	4	OT
Birmingham	7	10	7	9	0
Chicago	0	0	0	7	0

7

Chicago
3-10-0

Friday, May 18, 1984, 8:00pm - Soldier Field, Chicago, IL - Attendance: 8,578

Quarter	Team	Time	Scoring Summary	BIR	CHI
1		10:25	Smith 5-yard pass from Stoudt (Miller Kick) 10 plays, 77 yards, 4:35	7	0
2		14:16	Miller 46-yard field goal 10 plays, 39 yards, 5:14	10	0
		2:18	Smith 3-yard pass from Stoudt (Miller Kick) 5 plays, 43 yards, 2:12	17	0
3		7:27	Smith 7-yard pass from Stoudt (Miller Kick) 12 plays, 59 yards, 5:33	24	0
4		14:34	Miller 27-yard field goal 8 plays, 72 yards, 3:41	27	0
		12:00	Miller 42-yard field goal 4 plays, -13 yards, 2:00	30	0
		9:25	Anderson 22-yard pass from Evans (Seibel Kick) 5 plays, 64 yards, 2:35	30	7
		2:02	Miller 37-yard field goal 14 plays, 52 yards, 7:13	33	7