MINNESOTA 42, DETROIT 13

Streaking Vikings roll over Lions. Minnesota won its' ninth straight game and scored 40 or more points for the fifth straight time in a beat down of Detroit. Wade Wilson put up a perfect 158.3 QBR, completing over 90% of his passes for 310 yards and 4 touchdowns. Wilson's favorite target was, as usual, Anthony Carter who had nine receptions for 127 yards and two scores. The Viking's defense limited the Lions to under 200 yards of total offense, sacking Rusty Hilger 4 times (2 by Chris Doleman) and intercepting two of his passes including Walker Lee Ashley's pick six with just 29 seconds remaining. It was Ashley's third pick six of the season.
