Indianapolis needed a goal line stand in the final minute to beat New England 18-13. Randy McMillan scored on a 1-yard run to break a 3-3 tie. The Colts then blocked a Patriots punt for a safety. New England finally got their offense going in the 4th and Tony Eason tossed a 7-yard TD pass to Stanley Morgan to make it an 18-13 game with 4:19 left. The Colts were one first down from ending it when Albert Bentley fumbled and the Pats recovered with 2:04 left. New England drove to the Colts 8 yard line but a holding penalty and a sack pushed them back to the 27 and they were stopped on downs.
