The New York Jets beat New England 30-17 behind a strong defense that limited the Patriots to just 166 total yards. The Jets pulled ahead for good on an Al Toon 19-yard fumble return. The Jets had fumbled on the play and Lippett recovered for the Pats but he then fumbled and Toon scooped and scored to give the Jets a 21-17 lead. Pat Leahy then added 3 field goals to finish the scoring. New England only ran the ball for 29 yards on 24 carries on the day.
